

Shipping

Shipping Return Label Question

When a return label has been authorized to be processed, a notice is sent to the shipping department. If the notice has no additional information, the label will be made using UPS. It will be sent electronically through your email address directly from UPS. It will include a label and directions. This label could be made at any time of day but will not be processed through UPS until closing time, between 5 & 6pm eastern standard time.

Unique solution ID: #1162

Author:

Last update: 2015-03-10 16:35